

CHLOË ESTER

Chloë Ester is an indie rock artist based in Charlottesville, VA whose sound melts bubblegrunge, shoegaze, and alternative rock into something unmistakably her own. Chloë Ester's music is driven by a clear, magnetic voice and vivid lyrics that confront both herself and her audience with unflinching honesty. Described as introspective, cynical, dark, and laced with sharp sarcasm, her songs don't just invite listeners in—they hold them there.

A seasoned performer with over a decade on local stages, Chloë Ester has honed a live set that hits with equal parts grit and vulnerability. Her performances balance raw emotional weight with dynamic, full-band energy, making her equally at home in intimate rooms and higher-energy late-night lineups.

For venues seeking an artist who can deliver both atmosphere and impact, Chloë Ester offers a compelling, emotionally charged live experience that resonates long after the set ends.
